

respond appropriately. I am a new clinician and know the rules well, but didn't have opportunities

"I am now aware of which selves tend to get triggered and are more able to to wrestle with how I might respond to ethical dilemmas. I love having a new way to explore the Code of Ethics." M.B.

Voice Dialogue

Deepening the Understanding of how to Make Ethical Decisions Using the "Voice Dialogue" Process

A deeper look into the NASW Code of Ethics, specifically the Ethical Standards that are relevant to professional activities of Social Workers and explore the various "selves" that can be involved.

This class is intended for those who attended in the past the seminar "Exploring the grey areas of Boundary Crossings and Dual Relationships and Making Ethical Decisions Using the "Voice Dialogue" Process" (the Ethics Seminar offered in 2008-2010)

February 25, 2011 - CLOSED.
Fall date to be announced.

Time: 10am-1:15pm

Cost: $95/session

3 CEU's (Category 1, Approved by NASW Metro Chapter and meets the ethics requirement for Maryland, the District of Columbia and Virginia.)

Place: 3320 Stanford St, Hyattsville, MD

More information or to register visit:
www.anndobbertin.com, (301) 422-0101

Training is limited to 8-10 participants because of the experiential nature of this seminar.

For more information about the Voice Dialogue process visit www.voicedialogue.org

Ann Dobbertin, LCSW-C • Center . . . for Soul Work
3320 Stanford St. • Hyattsville, MD 20783
301-422-0101 • anndobbertin@gmail.com
www.anndobbertin.com

This class is recommended for practicing social workers who have already attained a basic grounding in the NASW Code of Ethics and state legal regulations.